UPDATE: Heat wave temperatures had us enjoying the air conditioned interior at the informal Friends of Canada (FoC) Canada Day celebration at La Piazza pizzeria in Chalandri on July 9 – in the presence of Canadian Ambassador to Greece Mark Allen.

Our annual Canada Trivia Quiz was once again a hit. Did you know that Canada may be the second largest country in the world but it's only the fourth biggest in terms of land area – due to its large proportion of fresh-water lakes? And Justin Beiber's debut EP was called 'My world'? (No one present answered that correctly...)

The ambassador cut a delicious, donated Canada Cake and drew the names of thirteen lucky winners for the door prizes. (Thirteen was a lucky number for some!)

Our FoC Welfare Network (which collaborates with the Salvation Army) thanks the guests who brought hygiene products for mothers with young children.

And our yearly kooky Canada Photo Booth was crackling all evening!

FoC would like to thank the following, who made the event possible:
